

University of the West Indies
Open Campus
Belize

Call for Papers

Belize Country Conference – November 16-17, 2010

Building our Nation's sustainability through Education, Culture and Technology

Interested persons are invited to submit papers for presenting the topics below during this two-day conference.

An abstract must be submitted with a maximum of 250 words before:

September 3, 2010

Full papers to be submitted by:

October 15, 2010

Note: Approved Conference Papers will be posted on the Open Campus website at:

Time allotted for presentations is 20 minutes with 25 minutes for participant interactions.

Topics:

An Education System that develops human capital

An alternative curriculum that addresses multiple industries

Exploring the Arts in its many facets which contribute to sustainable development

Using technology to advance development in:

- Physical and Virtual Classrooms
- Environment
- Climate Change
- Growth of Businesses
- Socioeconomic Equity and Stability
- Crime and Violence reduction
- Poverty Alleviation

Please provide: Name of Author(s), Topic, Contact information inclusive of telephone numbers, email and fax number. Brief Bio of no more than 50 words for Author(s) must also be provided.

Submission to be sent by specified deadline to:

Mrs. Jane Bennett, Head, UWI, Open Campus, Belize
P.O. Box 229
Princess Margaret Drive
Belize City, Belize
Email: jane.bennett@open.uwi.edu

